WEEKLY RACING CHALLENGE

WIN A PARTY AT SIMWORLD ENTERTAINMENT

Runs for 6 weeks from Mon 7th Nov - Sun 18th Dec.

It will now be run on a points basis system. Points will be awarded automatically when you finish your race and swipe your card at the counter.

You will need to beat the SimWorld benchmark lap time relevant to the skill level you select. If you beat the lap time you will be awarded points.

Easy - 1point Medium 2 points Hard - 3points

To earn more points for the week you will then have to beat your own lap time or move up to the next skill level. Points will only be allocated once per race for the best lap time.

If you move up to the next skill level you will only have to beat the SimWorld benchmark lap time for that skill level to start scoring points.

As you accumulate points you earn free races. 10 points for a 6min race or 15points for a 12min race.

Fastest weekly driver will be entered on the LapTime board for bragging rights.

The overall winner for the 2011 SimWorld Championship, determined by the total points
